

Who Took The Heart From The Valentines Store?

Children sit in a circle and and slap their hands on their legs and then clap until they have a good beat going the teacher starts first and name's the first child. The child that is called would then pick the next child and so on until all children have been called. The last child named would then say "I took the heart from the valentine's store and I shared it with all of my friends!!"

Remind the children that each child is only to be called on once so that everyone has a turn.

Who took the heart from the valentines store?

_____ took the heart from the valentines store? (teacher calls out a name)

Who me? Yes you! Couldn't be! Then who?

_____ took the heart from the valentines store? (student calls out a name)

Who me? Yes you! Couldn't be! Then who?

Who me? Yes you! Couldn't be! Then who?

Another way to play this game is for everyone to close their eyes and the teacher hides a heart behind a child's back and the other children repeat the song until the person with the heart is chosen. The person with the heart would then place the heart behind a different child's back.
